Wondering what we do?

Our Club Mission is community service, civic participation, educational programs and preservation of our historical clubhouse. We are a 501 (C) 3 Charity.

Our Community Service Programs

Arts & Culture

Join this group and submit an entry in our annual Arts Festival. Enjoy museum visits or tours. Explore your heritage or learn about people with different backgrounds.

Education & Libraries

This group concentrates on helping our local schools with various projects and donation drives. You can read a book in a classroom, volunteer to help a teacher or mentor a student.

Civic Engagement & Outreach

This group works with Children's Shelters, Domestic Abuse & Human Trafficking Programs, recognizes and donates to our Servicemen and Women and provides gifts for needy children.

Environment

We live in a beautiful area...this group works to keep it that way. They also support local animal shelters and offer programs featuring the preservation of our parks, animal habitats and beaches.

Health & Wellness

This group offers options to our club for serving our Members, Community Seniors, Children, Homeless and Needy through education and help. This group is a hands on, get it done group.
